The principal plays a key role in championing book study groups. S/he can help support book study groups by finding time during the day for groups to meet or even use faculty meeting time for groups. Principals can also promote study groups by asking members to present their book at a faculty meeting and encourage them to share their insights.

Before other elements of the book, such as the setting, plot, and theme, the characters who inhabit the book will either infuse the work with life or drag it down to dull reading. Your book club may encounter many types of characters: you may have a round, flat, or stock character, or even a traditional protagonist.
