KS3 SATs papers were introduced in 2003. KS3 test papers challenged children in their Year 9 Maths, Science and English. Following a long battle with teachers, formal tests were dropped after 2009. KS3 Maths papers (together with English and Science) do still exist but they are written and marked within schools.

At Key Stage 3 (school years 7, 8 and 9) pupils need to be able to form their own ideas and put these thoughts into writing. This is where comprehension helps students form opinions, discuss their thoughts on varying topics and analyse passages from different perspectives across a broad spectrum of subjects.

This is a test of reading skills.

Students will be asked to read a prose or non-fiction extract and answer different types of questions relating to what they have read. The extract will be about a page in length and there will be around 5-10 questions.

Some questions will ask for straight-forward answers

(retrieval style questions) while other questions will require
