DU to take admission tests offline, cuts marks by half
The government's decision on the test has put an end to that concern. The government has decided not to hold this year's Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC) and its equivalent examinations in light of the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic. According to the Dhaka Tribune, 1,365,689 students were supposed to sit for the exams.

OP-ED: When you are an HSC student in 2020 | Dhaka Tribune
For getting into a public university or a medical school, students have to sit for a two-part test, comprising the marks of an entrance examination and a composite score based on HSC and SSC results. An undergrad candidate with GPA 5 scores in both SSC and HSC exams is clearly at an advantage over those without, even before sitting the entrance test.
